Agenda Items

AACE Presentation: Steve, Mike, and Debbie went to the conference in mid October in Glendale AZ and gave a report of their experience. 200-300 people attended the conference from all over the country. They shared what they learned through the classes they attended including officer safety, test training, and self improvement. Steve found out that AACE has an automatic membership option with membership through MACEO with a $5 increase in annual dues. He will look into trying to apply this option to improve our access to education.

President Report: Paul reported that Seth, our webmaster, is still working on getting our ICC certificates printed out and dispersed.

Vice President: No membership meeting in January. Our speaker in February is a judge from Sterling Heights. He shared what the speakers will be in March at the conference, legal aspects, Air BnBs, and officer safety. Food and menu is being squared away. The conference will be March 2-5, 2022.

Treasurer: Financial report: $15,872.09, does not include income from membership. Steve is working on the calendar for the 2022 meetings.
